

Completed Exit Ticket from EDLD 650

A I will use my growth plan. I plan to look back at it to see how much I have accomplished. It was great evaluating myself. I also appreciated the groundings. I will challenge myself in the future! I wish this cohort the best as you graduate this summer.

B- Groundings are crucial to have to think before speaking...and avoid the PTO at all costs...

I will use the 5 practices of exemplary leadership. - C

The ability to ground yourself with finding out YOUR philosophy as well as your strengths is super helpful in reminding yourself as to why you wanna be a leader. Having a growth plan/vision board is crucial! - R

I will use the strengths document as a starting point

I will use my five strengths to remind myself the kind of leader I am and where I want to be. This is would be a great tool to have others take to reflect what kind of leaders are around me.- Y

I will use the strengths as I continue my leadership journey. It helped me use a starting point to view my strengths and weaknesses. K

Elisha Dunnigan- The five strengths is something that I found very valuable because I have been able to really look at my strengths and use them to balance myself in this incredibly draining and challenging year.

The five strengths, remember to be authentic, and remember the members of my village.--P

- I will use my growth plan to continue my journey as I move up the leadership ladder at work and through school. I will continue to grow and look back on the VIA survey.
