

Feedback to a student on Letter from a Birmingham Jail Fall 2020

This is a wonderful piece. Worthy of putting in your portfolio. Direct quotes from the text should have quote markings before and after and a page number should be included. I love your passion, your use of words and, your tenacity. Wishing you the best with your new position.

Example of references after a direct quote: (King Jr, 1963, pg.8).

Feedback to a student on Letter from a Birmingham Jail Fall 2021

This is a strong reflection that has several points made through real-life examples and reflects on the vision of Dr. King. I am glad that you can see a change in your experiences with this timeless piece of writing. Have you thought about how you will be a force for change? I wish you the best in your leadership journey. You may want to consider publishing this piece in a local commentary on MLK's Day.
