Principal Panel Questions:

What would you want people to know about the students and families that you serve?

The world witnessed George Floyd's killing which served to underscore the sentiment some people hold that Black lives are expendable and don't matter as much. As leaders of predominantly BIPOC schools, how have you addressed and eased some of this trauma? How have you promoted and showcased BIPOC Brilliance?

What "superpowers" do you need to display to be an effective principal for your teachers and community?

In terms of racial equity policies and practices for your building, how do you get <ul> <li>then start the principal panel at approximately 10:15 AM. Your segment of the program will be your responses to the questions I shared with you earlier and are attached for your convenience. You will have just over an hour plus a few minutes for Q&amp;A afterward. We would love for you to be in attendance for the entire conference: 8:30 - 11:30 AM, but we certainly understand if you can only make it for your segment.</li> <li>I would appreciate it if each of you could send me a short bio that Bernadeia could use as she introduces you. Also, I sent out notifications on Sunday night for you all to be panelists on the Zoom webinar. Please let me know whether or not you got the link. If there is an issue, I'd like to take care of that as soon as possible.</li> <li>Looking forward to hearing from each of you soon! Best, Natalie</li> <li>Natalie D.
